ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)--June 13, 2005--104.7 The Fish(R) WFSH-FM, was honored by the Georgia Association of Broadcasters at the 2005 GABBY Awards by taking top honors in the large radio-market AAA category. 104.7 The Fish, Atlanta, which plays contemporary Christian music, was named Station of the Year in the major market for the third time in the past four years, while the morning team of Kevin Avery and Taylor Scott (Kevin & Taylor in the Morning) won Best Radio Program and PM Drive host Dan Ratcliffe won Best On-Air Personality. The station was also awarded the Community Service Award and Best Produced Commercial. In all, the station swept the GABBY Awards with honors in five of the 11 categories.

Mike Moran, manager of the Salem Communications Atlanta cluster, noted that these awards underscore the positive impact of the format as well as the dedication of the Salem Communications staff.

"It is my privilege to work with a group of talented, dedicated professionals and for an organization which supports and encourages media that has a truly positive impact in our community. To be recognized by the industry for those efforts is an honor that I humbly accept on behalf of the entire Salem team."

The Georgia Association of Broadcasters states that its mission is to provide assistance that enables members to serve their communities of license in a manner that meets or exceeds the spirit and intent of FCC rules and regulations through education, representation and advocacy.
