

July 3, 2007

WNTP Hosts Home School Day with Bill Bennett at Six Flags Great Adventure

PHILADELPHIA--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

Former Secretary of Education and News Talk 990 AM WNTP host Bill Bennett will be the featured guest at Six Flags Great Adventure's special Home School Day on Monday, July 9. The renowned author and historian will broadcast his 'Morning in America' live from the park during his usual 6 to 9 a.m. time slot, speaking on timely and controversial topics of the day. Following the broadcast, Bennett will breakfast with fans and WNTP listeners who purchase event tickets ($8) along with park admission.

As host of the popular nationally syndicated Salem radio program 'Bill Bennett's Morning in America,' Bennett features headline-making guests from politics, media, sports and entertainment. A long-time supporter of home schooling, Bennett has called it "one of the most encouraging and robust movements in America." The first 100 listeners who purchase tickets to the Bennett event will receive complimentary autographed copies of his latest book, "America: The Last Best Hope", the second volume sequel tracing the political and military history of America from WWI through the end of the Reagan presidency.

More information and advance reservations are available at 732-928-2000 x2850 or visit www.wntp.com.

Salem Philadelphia includes 990 AM WNTP and WFIL AM 560. Salem Communications (NASDAQ:SALM) is a leading U.S. radio broadcaster, Internet content provider, magazine and book publisher targeting audiences interested in Christian and family-themed content and conservative values. The company owns and operates approximately 100 radio stations, including 61 stations in 23 of the top 25 markets. Additional information about Salem may be accessed at the company's website, www.salem.cc.

Source: Salem Communications