

August 6, 2007

WNTP to Host 'Hugh Hewitt Show' Live Broadcast at National Constitution Center

PHILADELPHIA--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

Nationally syndicated Salem talk radio host Hugh Hewitt will be on hand for Philly fans of News Talk 990 AM WNTP Aug. 9 from 6 to 9 p.m. for the live broadcast of his 'Hugh Hewitt Show' at the National Constitution Center. Scheduled guest for the show, which is open to the public, is former congressman Mike Fitzpatrick. Hewitt will also be available to sign his latest book 'A Mormon in the White House.'

"This event offers our faithful listeners valuable face time with one of our News Talk favorites," Russ Whitnah, vice president and general manager for WNTP. "Hugh really has a handle on national hot-button issues and speaks intelligently to the conservative community in Philadelphia. Our listeners always give him a warm welcome."

Admission requires pre-registration either on line at www.wntp.com or by phone at 610-940-0990 x10. The Hugh Hewitt Show airs weekdays at 6 p.m. on AM 990 WNTP.

Source: Salem Communications