Salem's Dave Armstrong Retires After 50 Years in Radio

CAMARILLO, CA -- (Marketwired) -- 08/12/14 -- Salem Communications Corporation (NASDAQ: SALM) announced today that Dave Armstrong is retiring from Salem Communications at the end of September. He has managed the Los Angeles, New York and San Diego clusters during his 20 yrs. with Salem. Dave started in radio while still in his teens as a part-time DJ at a small station in Conneaut, Ohio and has gone on to hold positions as Program Director, Sales Mgr. and V.P./General Mgr. during his 50 yrs. in radio. Although he's leaving Salem, Armstrong was quick to say: "This is the end of another chapter in my work book but it's not the final chapter and I'm excited to see what's next!"

Salem Radio Division President, Dave Santrella, had this to say about Armstrong's departure: "Dave has been a tremendous leader in our company and his creative contributions have created legacy attributes that Salem enjoys to this day and will enjoy well into the future. For that we are forever grateful."
