"Larry has proven to be one of the true super stars in talk radio. Listeners love his take-no-prisoners attitude," said Salem Senior VP of Spoken Word, Phil Boyce. "Larry is a consummate pro, a true entertainer, and packs a ton of information into every show. He is very deserving of this honor."

Larry's nomination will be voted on by over 600 radio professionals across the country, and the winner will be announced in August.

"This is truly an honor to be considered for this award," said Larry Elder. "I am grateful to have this platform, and hopefully I can make a difference for good in America. We have a country to save."

Larry's program was heard for years on KABC in Los Angeles before he moved over to AM 870 The Answer in LA. He was given the syndicated slot in April of 2016 by the Salem Radio Network.

Larry recently made headlines when the movie "Uncle Tom" was released. Larry was one of the featured performers in the movie, where he served as "Executive Producer." The movie is available on pay-per-view by going to SalemNow.com. The movie tells the story of prominent black conservatives in America, and how they learned the truth and became conservatives.
