“As we work hard to save America, we know women will be at the forefront. I can’t wait to hear this podcast with two strong women who have great chemistry and rapport together,” said Salem Senior Vice President of Spoken Word, Phil Boyce. “Jen and Katie will make a difference and build their audience with intelligent and entertaining talk.”

Jennifer Horn is a veteran radio broadcaster, getting her start as a teenager at CRN Digital Talk Radio. In 2006, she joined Good Day with Doug Stephan as a co-host. In 2011, she was named one of Southern California’s best radio personalities by LA Radio People, and in 2012, Radio Ink Magazine named Horn one of Radio’s Young Rising Stars. Jennifer is currently heard weekday mornings on AM 870 The Answer and AM 590 The Answer in southern California.

Katie Gorka has had a long career in national security and conservative advocacy. She served as president of Threat Knowledge Group from 2009 to 2016, providing counter-terrorism training and expertise to the FBI, local law enforcement, and the Department of Defense. In 2016, she joined the Trump Transition Team and served as senior policy advisor in the Office of Policy at the Department of Homeland Security. From 2020 to 2022 she served as Director for Civil Society at The Heritage Foundation. She is the co-author of NextGen Marxism: What It Is and How to Combat It released earlier this year.

“I am so excited to partner with Katie Gorka and the Salem Podcast Network on ‘Happy Women’”, said Jennifer Horn. “Katie’s drive, curiosity, and engagement inspires me every day. We can’t wait to share inspiring stories and talk through — and laugh — about the issues facing all of us in all aspects of life.”

“Jennifer Horn is the funniest and wisest female broadcaster out there,” said Katie Gorka. “I am so excited that we are expanding our weekly radio conversations into a full podcast, where we will share our stories of fighting back in the liberal strongholds of California and the DC swamp. But we'll also keep it fun by talking about food, culture, clothing, and lifestyle, and we will bring on as guests some of our favorite, mostly female, heroes."

The Salem Podcast network launched in January 2021 and is ranked as the 11th most listened to podcast network on the Triton Digital platform, with 13 million average downloads per month.
