Salem News Channel Launches Over the Air in 55 Television Markets

CAMARILLO, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Salem Media Group, Inc. (OTCQX: SALM) announced today that Salem News Channel has entered a partnership with HC2 Broadcasting. This new relationship significantly increases the Salem News Channel footprint. The channel is now available free over-the-air in 25% of U.S. television markets.

Cary Pahigian, Vice President, General Manager of Salem News Channel, said, “We welcome our new partnership with HC2 Broadcasting. This is another significant step in the rapid growth and distribution of the Salem News Channel, and in HC2 Broadcasting’s expansion.”

Les Levi, President and CEO of HC2 Broadcasting, said, “We are excited about our partnership with Salem Media Group and delighted to be launching the Salem News Channel on our TV broadcast platform. The channel will be available for the first time to broadcast television viewers, who should enjoy the network’s rich and informative news content.”

This marks the first time Salem News Channel will enter the broadcast television space.
