100 Days of Trump: A Salem Radio Network Special

CAMARILLO, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Salem Media Group, Inc. (OTCQX: SALM) announced today that Salem Radio Network ("SRN") will offer affiliates a one hour special on the first 100 days of the current Trump administration, airing on Tuesday, April 29th. This special will take the place of the third hour of the Larry Elder show, and be fed live to affiliates at 8pm ET, 5pm PT. Both current affiliates of the Larry Elder show, and non-affiliates may carry this hour. This hour-long special will also be broadcast on Salem News Channel.

President Trump has changed the way we look at the presidency and has moved quickly to install his agenda. The motto "Promises Made, Promises Kept" could not be truer. This one-hour special will be hosted by Larry Elder, with co-host Chris Stigall who is also the host of the morning show on SRN, heard mornings 6-9am ET.

Chris and Larry will be interviewing White House officials, cabinet members, and members of congress on this one hour special, discussing the accomplishments during "The 100 Days of Trump," both on the Stigall morning show and this special. Other Salem hosts will join the live broadcast on the 29th.

"The Trump team has taken the country by storm, in the 100 days since Trump was inaugurated on Capitol Hill," said Salem Senior Vice President for Spoken Word, Phil Boyce. "From shoring up the border, deporting illegals, getting control of the tariff situation, and placing qualified leaders in the right position at the White House, this has been an amazing turn around for America."
