Terry began his career with Salem in 1982 as General Manager of KDAR-FM and quickly rose through the ranks to hold key leadership roles that have defined multiple generations of Christian radio. His roles have included General Sales Manager at KKLA-FM, Market Manager for Los Angeles, and Regional Vice President overseeing major markets such as Seattle, Sacramento, San Francisco, Oxnard, San Diego, and most recently, Honolulu. Since 2024, he has also served as Regional General Manager for Honolulu and Oxnard.

Reflecting on his time at Salem, Terry shared:

"I am grateful for the opportunities and support Salem's leadership has afforded me to make a spiritual impact in Southern California and other West Coast markets. I also treasure the talented and hard-working broadcast and media professionals I have had the privilege to work alongside. I am proud of what we accomplished, not only on air but also with our community events. Many people hope to look back on their careers with a sense of purpose and accomplishment. By God's grace that has been my experience and privilege at Salem."

Terry's dedication has been matched by the steadfast support of his family. His wife of 43 years, Cindy, their sons Brian and Garrett, their wives, and six beloved grandchildren have been a bedrock throughout his journey. In retirement, Terry looks forward to spending more time with them and offering consulting support to nonprofit Christian ministries.
